

INT APARTMENT

In a nice sunny apartment T.J. (24 wild hair, slob, rugged) and a KATE (this is a King of Queens thing) sit watching a football game.

COMMENTATOR (O.S.)
That will be 3rd and one inside five minutes...

T.J. reaches in to a LARGE BOWL OF DORITOS, sitting along with DORITOS BAGS, and pulls out a DORITO SHAPED LIKE A FOOTBALL.

T.J.
(amused)
This Dorito looks like a football..

KATE is like 'here we go again'.

T.J. (CONT'D)
(brainstorm!) What if you could make any shape you want?!

A Doritos 3D Printer rotates back and forth on a seamless velvety backdrop.

INT. APARTMENT

The same 3D printer is churning out a long strand of Doritos bunting.

Kate walks in and lets out a YELP at what she sees:

T.J. is on all fours feverishly eating the end of the Doritos bunting. He looks up at the camera like a late night spotted raccoon.

Kate listens patiently as an excited T.J. (chef's hat and apron) explains his invention and all THE NACHO FIXINGS on the island.

T.J.

You know, you're making Dorito
Super Nachos and the cheese cements everything together...or, the fixings don't get on every chip!

From the 3D Printer comes a BING.

T.J. Reaches in and pulls out the DORITO CHIP TREE a conical shape with chips spiraling around to the top.

T.J. places it on PLATTER W/ GARNISH and ladles HOT CHEESE over the shape.

I give you the Doritos Chiptree.

T.J. sprinkles by hand CHICKEN, CHIVES, ONION, & TOMATOES over the tree.

Kate is interested before T.J. pops off a chip and burns his mouth.

T.J. (CONT'D)

Hot! Hot! Hot!

INT APARTMENT

The 3D Printer whurls, bings and pops out a perfectly formed DORITOS BALL. It rolls on to the table covered with TWENTY-ODD ASSORTED DORITO SHAPES.

T.J. (crazed eyes & hair, covered in random smears of ORANGE DORITO DUST) picks up the ball.

T.J.

Ballie, ball, ball..

With that he throws the ball in to the air to catch it in his mouth - Kate's hand comes in and catches the ball.

KATE
(off camera)
Hey!

CUT TO:

INT APARTMENT

The normal T.J. is startled out of his state while the football game plays in background.

KATE
You are over thinking it.

She is holding the perfect doritos chip.

KATE (CONT'D)
Doritos are perfect the way they are.

With that she eats the chip, on the bite..

The 3D printer struggles to print a HUGE DORITO; the chip wiggles as its spicy points stick out of the front and top.

T.J.'s head comes up from behind; he watches the machine with a devilish grin, salivating at the sight of the chip.

MegaDorito

A PUFF OF ORANGE SMOKE comes out of the printer while GRINDING NOISES are heard.
